Advanced Feline Behaviour - Cat Psychology - Seminar

at Richmond College

Course No: 28481 Qualification: Statement of Attendance National Course Code: N/A

Course Profile

This seminar is for those seeking an in-depth knowledge of cat behaviour and behavioural management. The course introduces you to the work of a 'Feline Behaviourist' and will show you how to observe and interpret feline behaviour.

Students will be shown techniques to use in assessing behaviour and modifying common problem behaviours. This course aims to provide highly technical and advanced information in a comprehensive way for people who don't have a PhD!

People working with cats, or with an interest in behaviour, behavioural consultants and behaviour enthusiasts will all benefit from attending this course.

Your speaker at this seminar is a fully qualified animal scientist, animal behaviourist, vet nurse, animal trainer and zookeeper.
