

Introduction to Canine Behaviour - Seminar

at Richmond College

Course No: 28482

Qualification: TAFE NSW Attendance Certificate

National Course Code: N/A

Course Profile

This seminar is designed to give you an introduction to the aspects of canine behaviour based on how a dog communicates, and the interpretations of body language for observing and interpreting behaviour. You will learn to understand the ways in which dogs perceive the world, and be able to identify the way they communicate to us and each other.

This course is suitable for anyone with an interest in dogs or working with dogs.

It is a must for dog trainers, dog attendants, vet nurses, dog walkers, puppy class instructors and dog owners.

Your speaker at this seminar is a fully qualified animal scientist, animal behaviourist, vet nurse, animal trainer and zookeeper.

About Richmond College

The college is located 17 kilometres from the M7. Take the Richmond Road exit. Richmond Road becomes Blacktown Road as you approach Richmond.

Look for the blue TAFE signs at the corner of Blacktown Road and Campus Drive just before entering Richmond.

Or, take a train to East Richmond station and then a pleasant 15 minute walk to the college.

On arrival at the college, look for signs that will direct you from the car park to your classroom.

Richmond College has a canteen open for breakfast, hamburgers and coffee etc.
Hours are 7.30am – 8.00pm (Monday–Thursday), 7.30am – 6.00pm (on Fridays).

Richmond College opens its doors each spring for Spring Open Day.

In 2012 this event will be held 10am – 4pm, on Saturday 15 September.

Admission is free and everyone is invited to come to see our beautiful college grounds, meet teachers and students, and discover what Richmond College offers in courses and career options in Animal Care, Agriculture, Equine Studies, Horticulture, Floristry, Pest Management, IT, Business Services, Retail and General Education.
